PROFILE

Entrepreneurial full stack engineer who ships 0→1 products end to end. Highly skilled in React, TypeScript, Next.js, and JavaScript; enough Node/SQL to own features from UI to DB. AI-first with Cursor and Claude—draft intent, explore, scaffold, refactor—then validate on staging and with real users. Builder of paid apps and WebGL experiences that run on phones. Eager to help design Bask’s telehealth software backbone with the CEO and CTO.

THREE.JS · REACT THREE FIBER

Mobile WebGL scenes (phone-ready)

Ship interactive 3D in React/Next with React Three Fiber + Three.js: Canvas with adaptive DPR / powerPreference for mobile; meshes, lights, cameras; GLTF/GLB + textures; @react-three/drei (useGLTF, Environment, touch OrbitControls).

Performance, motion & taste

Clamp pixel ratio, dispose GPU resources on unmount, lazy-load models, frameloop="demand" when idle, GPU-friendly materials. Motion with restraint—timing and polish you can defend; clarity over spectacle for trust-sensitive products.

Applied in product work

3D scroll / product storytelling, creative canvases (Doodlez), interactive web experiences (Guess The Move), spatial UI prototypes—always verified on real phone browsers.

EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Engineer · Founder (AI-First)

Feb 2020 – Present

Griggs Mutual Holdings, LLC · KribSavup / TGS · Eastvale, CA

- Own features end to end: React/Next.js UI → typed APIs → Prisma/SQL-style data → serverless/cloud deploy.
- Build multi-tenant SaaS patterns and reusable architecture so the next feature ships faster.
- Work AI-first with Cursor & Claude; apply judgment for quality, privacy, and reliability.
- Prototype → staging with realistic data → production → learn from real users → systems polish.
- Shipped paid products: KribSavup, TempConnect, Why Unified, CRMGrow, Look N Lease, Guess The Move, and more.

President / CEO — Mission Technology

Feb 2022 – Present

Steward’s Mission, Inc. (501(c)(3)) · Beaumont, CA
